7 Day Andean Experience Through the Living Culture of the Incas

Day 2: CITY TOUR (D)

This trip starts at Sacsayhuaman, one of the emblematic buildings of the Inca Empire (just a few minutes from the centre of the city and a UNESCO World Heritage Site) built by the Inca Pachacutec in the 15th Century. It is a vast fortress built from huge stones; how they were transported and worked is still a mystery. It has been calculated that what we see today is only twenty percent of the original structure, because when the Spanish arrived they used its stones for new buildings such as the cathedral.

PLACES THAT ARE VISITED:

Sacsayhuaman.

Qenko.

Tambomachay.

Puca Pucara.

In the afternoon we will travel by car to the town of Ollantaytambo where the train station to Machu Picchu awaits our transfer to the town of Machu Picchu (Aguas Calientes).

Lodging: Aguas Calientes

Golden Sunrise  or Similar.

Day 3: MACHU PICCHU

Today, we will rise very early for breakfast and ascend to the Inca Citadel of Machu Picchu (approx 25 minutes by bus) to appreciate sunrise at this magical place, a famous masterpiece of architecture and engineering, believed to have been a sanctuary and energetic center. Today, Machu Picchu is recognized by UNESCO as one of the seven wonders of the world and a World Heritage site.

Optional: The trek to the peak of Huayna Picchu, a rigorous climb on steep trails with impressive ruins and spectacular views, a round-trip of 2 hours.

Lodging: Aguas Calientes

Golden Sunrise  or Similar.

Day 4: OLLANTAYTAMBO - MORAY - SALT MINES

Return to living Inka town of Ollantaytambo by train and continue by car to Moray, an ancient construction designed for agricultural investigations and studies of different crops in a range of altitudes. Here, the many concentric rings of terraces produce a fine gradient of micro-climates; the warmth of the lowest central ring slowly dissipates as the rings ascend outward and upward, creating reductions in temperatures until reaching the ground-level norm.

PLACES THAT ARE VISITED:

Ollantaytambo

Maras (Salt Mines)

Moray.

Lodging: Ayni Cusco Hotel  or Similar.

Day 5: CHINCHERO (TEXTILE INTERPRETATION CENTER)

Chincheró: the rainbow village, home of the ruins of the royal palace of the Inka

Tpac Inca Yupanqui, a picturesque community located on a high plateau overlooking the many snowcapped peaks of the Cusco region. Here we can admire the wellpreserved Inka walls of the main square as well as the many altars. We will also visit the beautiful colonial church, unique for its interior artwork and imagery.

Moving on, we will participate in a wonderful introduction and learning experience of the art of Andean textiles; throughout the afternoon we will become acquainted with the wisdom of Andean weavings as maintained since long before Inka times.

After all, we will return to Cusco.

Lodging: Cusco

Ayni Cusco Hotel  or Similar.

7 Day Andean Experience Through the Living Culture of the Incas

Day 6: ANIMAL SANCTUARY PISAQ PISAQ MARKET

Travel to the Sacred Valley of the Inkas towards the town of Pisac. We will stop on the way to visit the animal sanctuary of Cochawasi: here we may observe many of the native Andean species such as the puma, Andean condor, alpacas, and many more. Further en route we will stop for at a spectacular viewing location to observe the Urubamba river as it curves like a serpent through the mosaic-like agricultural lands.

As we continue towards the town of Pisac, we may also observe the construction design of the archaeological site of Pisac, which many say portrays the profile of a condor. Pisac is known mainly for two reasons for its famous craft market and for its archaeological site. Here we will have free time to wander the market and to interact with the many local artisans. The ruins of Pisac, high above the modern town on the mountain, is one of the most important of the Sacred Valley.

My sister and I are very satisfied with the service provided by Inkayni Tours, all the staff was very kind to us. Meeting first to Adrian and Piero at the airport, there was a nice present in our room at our arrival to the hotel Ayni Cusco, here we met with Eduardo“Edu”, and he gave us an informative talk regarding the tour and the itinerary. We were fortunate to arrive at Machu Picchu when the sky was very clear, that allowed us to take excellent panoramic photos of Machu Picchu, and complemented with the information provided by Edu made our visit great. Thanks to the Inkayni team for the excellent organization of our trip.

This is the first time I do a review, I decided to do it because the tour exceeded my expectations, Inkayni Perú is an excellent local operator in Perú, good communication with the staff, and everything was very well organized. The driver Roy understand a little English but his work is excellent, he is well uniformed and is ready to help you if you need. My mom has overweight and to get in the car and to get off too he was there to assist her with a huge smile. I can not forget to the guide Cristian, we spend a great experience with him and the time went by quickly. Thank you very much Cristian, Roy and Inkayni team, you are excellent hosts of your country.

My family and I wanted to visit Cusco and Machu Picchu and luckily we met Inkayni Peru Tours, the communication with them was very fluent. Also I needed to contact them by phone and they were very professional to answer all my questions. Finally, I booked the package and Inkayni did not let us down. The tour was great; our guide Daniel is a person with a lot of knowledge of history of the Incas and if you have any questions just do it. Thank you very much Daniel to take care of us and share a lot of information about your culture.

I did the Andean Experience with Inkayni Peru Tours. It was incredible. All the tours were interesting with a really good logistic. I always felt very safe doing all the tours. A special shoutout to our guide, Miguel (Miki), who was always smiling, supportive and who gave us loads of information about the inca civilisation. We could see that he was really passionate about it. He always made sure that everyone in the group felt included. Everything was great. I would 100% recommend it.

Our group was amazing and so was our guide Raul. He was really patient with me always helping me when I struggled. I loved his stories about the Inca culture and the legends. The food was incredible at restaurants. Our driver could take care of us in a bet way. We also had the best weather so really lucky because we could see the blue skies. Altogether was my highlight from Peru. Thank you INKAYNI PERU TOURS
